

Prophetic Word given at Lighthouse to All Nations Sunday service, January 7, 2024

In this new day, you are about to discover that you are revelation of Jesus Christ. You are the one who will reveal the truth of Who Christ is, but on this day YOU need to receive the revelation. Just receive through the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of Jesus. Jesus, I thank you for the Spirit of wisdom and revelation of the knowledge of you on the inside of each one of us. Thank you Jesus for the new day that we are living in now. Old things from yesterday are passed away, but we have stepped into this new era of time, that we will live and move and have our being in the new revelation that we are. We will walk in the power and authority of who we are because of the Spirit of Revelation on the inside of us. He is saying, 'Come on, let`s run together. Now is the day.'

Some one here feels like they have reached their limitation to do your job. You feel like you can`t go any further. God says `take the top off right now. 'He is opening, a new way, path, revelation of what you can do in the Spirit through Him. You might think you are a natural person at a natural job, but you are not. YOU are a spirit of revelation living on the earth, in your workplace. So remove every hardship that wants to press you down. Remove it and step into who you are. The Lord says, `none of you are orphans. ` Whether you have parents that are living or not, You have a Father.
